Start
Enter Password with a Minimum of 8 Characters and a Maximum of 15 Character
IF the password exceeds the maximum or fails to meet the minimum or use anything other than what is given they should re enter the password
IF
Characters allowed:
! % & * + =
lowercase characters
uppercase characters
numeric characters
IF the password has the correct amount of characters and has used the materials given to the user then proceed to the next stage
For every lowercase letter used give the user +5, For every Uppercase letter used give the user +5, For every Numeric Character used give +10, For every Special Character used give the user +10, If the Password contains 10 or more characters give the user +20.
If the password is only lowercase -3 for every character, If the password is only uppercase -3 for every character, If they password is only Numeric characters then -5 for every character
Add up the Score
If the overall score is 20 or less Output "Very low level Security"
If the overall score is between 21 and 40 Output "Low level Security"
If the overall score is Between 41 and 70 then Output "Medium level Security"
If the overall score is between 71 and 80 then Output "High level Security"
If the overall score is 81 or more then Output "Very high level Security"
End

End